

ABSTRACT

The described arrangements and procedures describe to a sheet with top, bottom, left, and right facial portions and edges. The sheet has a single respective fluid-based marking positioned on at least one facial portion and 5 edge. The single fluid-based marking includes data that is detectable by an imaging device from the at least one facial portion or edge to configure operations to form images on the sheet.

09981885-101701